Literary Analysis Chart

Directions: Write a thesis statement or a topic sentence. Then, select a piece of textual evidence that could be analyzed to support the ideas proposed by the thesis statement or the topic sentence. Next, answer each of the following questions. Remember the Irish Thesis Model is [x]. However, [a], [b], and [c]. Therefore, [y].

Thesis Statement/Topic Sentence:

__________________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________

[Blank spaces for textual evidence and answers to questions]