

Answer these questions on a separate piece of paper please

How would this story change if told from John's perspective? (answer in 3-5 complete sentences)

What does the yellow wallpaper represent?

How does the description of the wallpaper change over time?

The yellow wallpaper was written in 1890 do you think that affects the story? (Notice how John talks to the narrator)

Do you think the narrator actually has a medical condition? If so does John help her with the "rest cure"

Explain the ending of the yellow wallpaper in 3-5 sentences. (What happens to the narrator?)

Do you believe that there is a woman in the wallpaper?

Describe each character

- Narrator

- John

- Mary

- Jennie